COMMUNITY EXPECTATIONS

As members of the university community, each of us is responsible for creating an environment where faculty, staff, and students can learn, work, discover, create, and thrive. We commit to:

- Treating all UI community members and visitors with respect
- Modeling ethical behavior and business practices every day, in every aspect of our work
- Embracing the commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion that is fundamental to our mission

The university expects all faculty, staff, and students to meet standards of behavior grounded in UI values, including commitment to academic freedom and free speech. An academic institution has a duty to provide a forum in which differences of opinion are actively encouraged and facilitated, and where opinions and deeply held beliefs are challenged and debated.

UI CORE VALUES

Community: We foster an open, welcoming environment where all can collaborate and support each other.

Diversity: We recruit, retain, and advance a diverse community; build an inclusive, accessible campus; and ensure our policies and practices are equitable.

Excellence: We expect the best effort from ourselves and colleagues in all that we do, and continually seek to improve.

Integrity: We strive to align our words and our actions, and value the highest academic, personal, and professional ethics.

Learning: We believe growth and development are essential regardless of role, responsibility, or discipline.

Respect: We treat people in ways that acknowledge their perspectives and experiences.

Responsibility: We strive to be dependable, trustworthy, and accountable stewards of the legacies and resources entrusted to us.
